CITY NEWS.

Votes and News Concerning Our People—Weekly Record of Social Events, Deaths, Marriages and Births. Written Especially for St. Louis Palladium.

Now that the republicans have won, we trust all of them don't expect of them.

There will be a meeting of republicans at the Douglass hall, November 22.

Mrs. D. H. Kyle, of Cincinnati, O., is visiting her cousin, Mrs. R. C. Foreen, 115 Cottage avenue.

Mr. George Montgomery, of Columbia, Ky., left last night for home. He stopped at 4226 San Francisco avenue.

Don't forget the entertainment at the True Reformers' hall for the benefit of the Orphans' Home, November 22.

Mrs. A. Willis Brooks, of St. Paul, Minn., will visit the fair in St. Louis, and stop at Mrs. M. E. Nichols', 115 Chestnut street.

Mrs. Charles B. Steward and Baby Steward, of Terre Haute, Ind., are visiting her sister, Mrs. Katie L. Boswell, at 4224 Madison avenue.

Mr. Upshaw McCoy, of the windy city, Chicago, visited her sister, Mrs. G. C. G. of 1315 Clark avenue. He returned home a few days ago.

Mr. A. Ford, successor to Mr. A. J. Smith, of 1315 Clark avenue, the grocers, are doing a good business. We wish them a bright success.

Mr. F. Howels, of Sedalia, Mo., passed a civil service examination several days ago and has been appointed clerk in the post office in St. Louis.

Mrs. A. L. Fitzpatrick, of 4252 Sacramento avenue, has moved to 4224 San Francisco avenue. She had trouble in leaving the dog at their new home.

Mrs. J. Post, of Los Angeles, Cal., will visit the fair next Wednesday, November 23. She will stop with Mrs. M. E. Nichols, of 1702 Chestnut street.

Although we won a victory in St. Louis, we are now to be instructed by a few men that were in the state and some that had just returned to the fold November 22.

Who is it that lives in Illinois, because he wants his children to go to white schools? Negroes that want to be white, it is a pity they are not. Poor fools!

DUMAS DRAMATIC CLUB REQUESTS THE PUBLIC TO DECIDE A QUESTION.

The people remember the above organization from its meritorious presentation of several dramas in various first-class theaters of this city, and now the club has decided to reproduce one of their former dramas at the Odeon theater, on Grand avenue, Monday evening, January 9, 1905, and we ask the people to decide which of our former plays they would be more desirous of seeing the club reproduce. The following plays have been our efforts since the club's organization in 1901:

"Bound by an Oath," domestic drama in four acts and prologue, by David

Mrs. S. Franklin, of 3921 St. Ferdinand avenue, is quite sick at this writing.

Wait for the grand entertainment on Tuesday, December 8. Admission, 50 cents. Masonic hall.

Mr. Brooks, elevator man at the Roe building, has been sick for the last month. We hope for his recovery.

Gussie Davis, of 3914 Sophia avenue, is suffering from rheumatism in her left arm. It is indeed very painful.

Wright Cuney club will meet at Taylor's hall at 3 o'clock Sunday. C. H. Tandy, president; L. W. Vinegar, secretary.

Mrs. H. H. Walker, of St. Joseph, Mo., is visiting the fair, and is stopping with Mrs. M. B. Carruthers, 6 North Beaumont street.

Mrs. Delia Smith, the mother of Mrs. Maggie Jordan, of 2633 Market street, is quite sick in Belleville, Ill. We hope she will recover rapidly.

The Hon. L. C. Jones, the former attorney of St. Louis, is now in Kansas City, Kas. His family resides at 2616 Lawton avenue, St. Louis.

Mrs. Mary Sims, of 3921 Sophia avenue, is sick at this writing. Her daughter, Lottie Sims, is of great help to her. We hope she will soon recover.

One of our reporters sent us matter on two little sheets of paper and sewed them together with thread. Come down and we will give you a tablet at some merriment.

Twenty-two applicants for deputy sheriff under Mr. Patrick Clark, sheriff elect. The positions should be given to honorable men and men that have been of some service to the party.

Teachers and preachers wanted to write sick, accident and death insurance. Can earn $50, $75 and $150 per month. Experience not necessary. Address Home Protective Association, Hannibal, Mo.

Miss Carrie Lee Hunt died in Troy, Mo., on the 10th of this month. She was the sister of Mr. J. W. Hunt, the engineer, at Simmons school, 4234 St. Louis avenue. We deeply sympathize with him.

Mrs. G. W. Wade, of 4203 Kennerly avenue, presented her husband with a bouncing boy a few days ago. The husband is all smiles, and seems to think there is no other boy but his. Mother and baby are doing well.

Why was not the meeting held at St. Paul's chapel, where 1,500 or 1,700 ladies and gentlemen could be present? Why was the change made? Is it possible that there is a ring in a ring? If so, look well to the men in that ring.

Miss Mary L. Ross, the cousin of E. H. Taylor, the attorney, is now the belle of St. Louis. She has written a play that will be produced very soon under the auspices of the All Saints' church. We know it is good, because she is so very good.

The Ladies' Noonday club had a very pleasant meeting Thursday, November 10, with Mrs. M. E. Dobbins, at 2622 Stoddard street. At the close of business the following-named persons were presented to the club and had lunch with them: Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Ramsey, of Toledo, O.; Mrs. M. Riddle and Mrs. J. D. Harper, of Memphis, Tenn.; Miss N. M. Mason, Mrs. E. Herndon and Mrs. A. H. Gandy, of this city. A very pleasant evening was spent.

The double wedding that was to take place on November 24, at 4020 Flinn avenue, has been postponed until December 26, at which time it will take place in Chicago, on account of the illness of one of the contracting party's mother, Mrs. Leyle. Friends in St. Louis holding invitations who would like to attend the wedding in Chicago can get a pass at 4020 Flinn avenue, to go on the special train which will leave here December 25, and return on the 27th.

Where a Few Janitors and Porters Meet to Discuss Mugmump Politics.

There is a place down in the city where a few Negro porters, janitors, broken-down politicians and so-called democratic Negroes meet to discuss the odds and ends of Negro men and women. We are informed that a number of one-horse broken-down newspaper men meet and pass their hellish opinions of men and women. We are informed that some of them live in Illinois, and work in St. Louis. They live there to send their children to white schools. We hope the time is not far distant when such men will be ostracized and cast out of our ranks.

The same gang is now telling who are the Negroes that will be made deputy sheriffs instead of the three so-called Negro men who now claim to be democrats. Next week we will give a pen picture of a number of these scoundrels, both so-called democrats and republicans.

"Of course to the Newport, 2321 Market street. Why bless your soul, child, they will have all the good things."

"Well what will they have that's so nice?"

"Why, they will have turkey, opossum. Sweet potatoes wld dat 'possum. Ice cream and all de good things. Dat turkey will be stuffed wld cranberries—and oysters on de side. Den dey will have scalloped and stewed oysters, wld cream and cake. O! Ain't dat nice? Only 35 cents."

MARRIED AND DID NOT GO TO THE MOTHER'S OR FATHER'S HOUSE.

Mr. James Edwards, of 3022 Lambdin avenue, was married, November 8, to Miss Gussie Coleman, of 3308 La Salle street, and he took that lady to his own house, at 3021 Lambdin avenue. This is what all men should do when they marry. We admit that the dudes have only the long raglan that is on their back. We hope that the sensible girls will look before they jump. These newcomers may be out of some prison when they come to St. Louis. Yet the so-called high, upper ten girls get to fighting about them, and they aren't worth the powder that it would take to blow them into the next world.

HENRY CLAY.

A Great Picture of Henry Clay Speaking on the Missouri Compromise.

J. W. Wheeler, the ex-politician, has just received an oil painting of the United States senate as Henry Clay made his famous speech on the Missouri compromise in 1850. This painting is the work of Prof. H. W. Sexton, of 2605 Lawton avenue. The picture has been classed as first grade, valued at $100. We invite you to come to The Palladium and examine this great picture.

ANTIOCH CHURCH NOTES.

Sunday, the 13th, was covenant and communion of the Lord's Supper. The services were largely attended. Many visitors were present. Among them S. Christmas, Brothers D. Carl, J. W. Shaffer, Mr. and Mrs. Walton, Mrs. Belle Rodgers, Mrs. Shepard and others. At 8 p. m. Rev. S. W. Batchlor, of Covington, Tenn., was introduced by Rev. S. P. Anderson. He spoke from the eighteenth verse and thirtieth chapter of Isaiah. Subject: "Wait on the Lord." The subject was well handled, and all felt much benefited, and will be pleased to hear Rev. Batchlor again.

Antioch will not have a dinner Thanksgiving, as will many other churches, but will have a sermon at 11 a. m. and a Thanksgiving offering. All members are expected to be present. Friends and visitors in the city are invited. In the evening a concert will be given by the Sunday-school at Antioch church for the benefit of the School. Admission, 10 cents. J. A. Smith, superintendent. W. T. Smith, secretary. L. H. Patterson, musical director.

Celebrated Their Sixth Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. E. P. Gregg, son-in-law of Rev. S. P. Anderson and wife, has leased and moved to 4606 Lambdin avenue, the house owned by Mr. Frank McElroy, of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Gregg also celebrated their sixth marriage anniversary on the 16th of this month. Mrs. Gregg was formerly Miss Clara B. Ware. Mr. Gregg is a clerk in the St. Louis post office, and has by his close application to his duties been rapidly promoted in the department in which he works. Mr. Gregg is an intelligent and industrious young man. We wish them much happiness and a long life in their new and cozy home.

CHILD BURNED TO DEATH.

John Taylor, a child about five years old, was burned to death in the rear of his parents' home, at 3315 Polk street Monday morning. The accident occurred while the child was playing near a bonfire. His clothes became ignited, and before assistance reached him the flames had charred the flesh on one side. Death followed in several hours.

Notice.

We have stopped free-doinings in the paper. Since the World's fair we have received hundreds of locals concerning coming guests, and those who are here. The senders undoubtedly expect the articles to be published free gratis. Through investigation it has often been discovered that the senders are neither subscribers to The Palladium, nor do they even bear a friendly attitude toward it. Any locals not accompanied by a compensation will find their way into the waste basket.
